AUTHOR VISIT

ED
BOK
LEE

It reminds me of the tale your grandmother tells of how as a girl in North Korea one spring they announced an emergency ration on all adjectives & verbs.

No one cared. Nouns were simpler.

Ed Bok Lee is a fiscal year 2019 recipient of an Artist Initiative grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board. This activity was in part made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board, thanks to legislative appropriation by the Minnesota State Legislature, and by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

The Friends of Thorson Memorial Library proudly present this author visit:

THURS., MAY 2
6:30 P.M. at the
THORSON LIBRARY
EVERYONE WELCOME
Refreshments, too!

Lee explores familial and national legacies, and their persistence across shifting boundaries and the erosions of time. In these poems, the trait of an ancestor appears in the face of a newborn, and in her cry generations of women's voices echo. Using lush, exact imagery, whether about the corner bar or an invasion in medieval Korea, Lee is a careful observer, tracking and documenting the way that seemingly small moments can lead to larger insights.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Ed Bok Lee is the author of 'Whorled' (Coffee House Press), a recipient of a 2012 American Book Award and the Minnesota Book Award in Poetry. Lee is the son of North and South Korean emigrants—his mother originally a refugee from what is now North Korea; his father was raised in what is now South Korea. Lee grew up in South Korea, North Dakota, and Minnesota, and was educated there and on both U.S. coasts, Russia, South Korea, and Kazakhstan. He teaches at Metropolitan State University in Saint Paul, Minnesota, and also works as an artist, translator, and for two decades has taught in numerous programs for youth and the incarcerated.
