

James J. Hill Days draws a crowd to Wayzata

(SUN PHOTOS BY JASON JENKINS)

LEFT: Cocoa Bean the dachshund wore a sailor outfit for this year's dog costume contest at Wayzata's James J. Hill Days festival. RIGHT: Families take turns on a giant slide set up on the west end of Lake Street. The 45th annual James J. Hill Days drew many visitors to downtown Wayzata. The weekend-long festival Sept. 6-8 was presented by the Greater Wayzata Area Chamber of Commerce and featured many favorites like dachshund races, a fireworks show over Wayzata Bay, a parade down Lake Street and carnival rides.
