

LIFE

Barbara Johnson took this photo of a mother wood duck with 14 chicks at Noonan Park in Alexandria in early June.

WONDERFUL WILDLIFE

Douglas County and the surrounding area has no shortage of interesting wildlife. We also have plenty of photographers who work hard to capture images of all those critters. These are some of the photos that readers have submitted for Photo of the Week over the last several months. For even more photos, visit the gallery on www.echopress.com.

Dave Bittmann took this photo of a robin harassing an eagle while he was kayaking on Lake Brophy on July 3.

Dave Bittmann took this photo of a swan flying with the moon in the background on March 30.

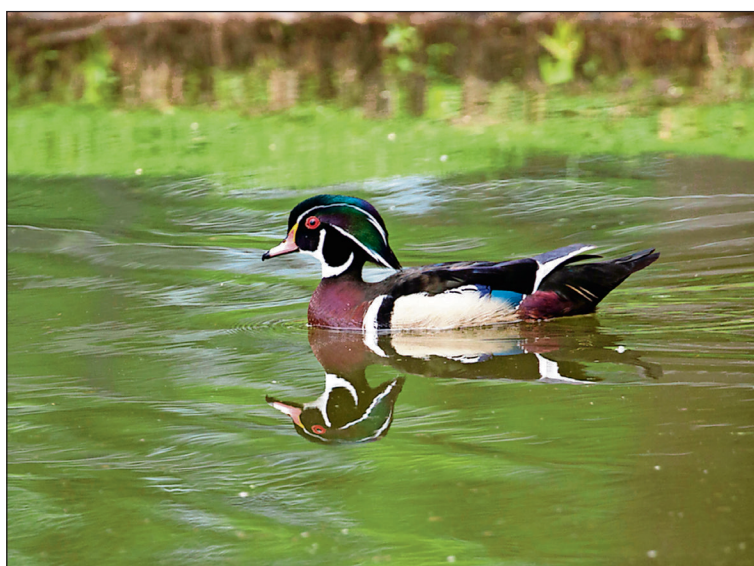

Karen Blom took this photo of a barred owl on the east side of Lake Latoka on March 18.

Marilyn Cunningham took this photo of a pair of loons and their young swimming in Lake Cowdrey in May.

Laurie Garcia took this photo of two fawns in a flower bed at the Osakis Country Club on July 10.

Barbara Johnson took this photo of a male wood duck at Noonan Park in Alexandria in early June.

Offering a road to recovery that doesn't require a map.

