

FAY BEDARD, Hallock, correctly guessed the object this month by sending a photo to the Enterprise. It is the centennial plaque on the flag base at the Halma Community Center. She and her husband, Pat, pictured above, will receive an extra three months on their subscription. JOSH PIETRUSZEWSKI, Hallock, correctly guessed the object by calling in, for which he receives an extra month to his subscription. Congratulations to our winners! Remember, if you think you know what the object is, call the Enterprise office right away, even if you think people have called already. We published this photo three times before anyone called. ## What's new at the Hallock Library

"The Northern Reach" by W.S. Winslow.

Edith Winslow stares across the water suffering her grief at the loss of her son who was lost at sea. Edith lives in Wellbridge, Maine, where the residents of this town squeeze out a living from the bay or trying to make a living from whatever the summer people need. The Baines family are land-rich but cash-poor, and are descended from the town founders. They live beside the ne'er-do-well Moody clan, the Martins of Skunk Pond and the bootleggers Edgcombs. This is a story of these families interacting, inter-marrying and fighting with their prejudices and secrets.

"Sooley" by John Grisham.

Samuel Sooley is 17, lives in the southern part of the Sudan and has just gotten the chance of a lifetime. He has a chance to fly to the United States to play in a showcased basketball tournament. He's never been away from home. He's never been on a plane and here he has a chance to be scouted by dozens of college coaches. He has amazing speed, an unbelievable vertical but the rest of his game needs work. While he is away, a civil war rages in the Sudan and his village has been ransacked. He finds that his father is dead. His sister is missing and his mother and two younger brothers are in a refugee camp. He is offered a scholarship to Durham and with determination works to dominate the game so he can bring his family to America.

"The Lost Village" by Camilla Sten

In 1959, everyone in the mining village of Silvertjarn, Sweden, disappeared. Alice is the granddaughter of a villager who left just before the tragedy and 60 years later brings a film crew back to the town hoping to film a documentary about this story and solve the mystery of what happened. As soon as they arrive, strange things begin to happen and instead of making a movie the film crew is just trying to survive whatever still has a hold on Silvertjarn.

"Death With a Double Edge" by Anne Perry.

Daniel Pitt, son of Thomas and Charlotte Pitt, is back in this new series by Anne Perry. Daniel Pitt is trying to make a success of himself in the law firm he's joined. An employee is murdered and Daniel's card is found in the dead man's pocket. Pitt and his colleagues think the death must be related to a case they're working on but then there is another death, this time a client. Deaths stack up and WWI is on the horizon. Violence and tensions are reaching a boiling point.

Thank you to everyone who bought sweatshirts from us. We'll be getting them to you very soon.

Summer Reading is just around the corner. Reading Colors Your World is this year's theme. Our program will be scaled back a bit but we begin our program on Tuesday, June 1 with outdoor reading and activity (weather permitting). As usual, our activities will be Tuesday mornings at 10:30 and will be held outdoors. We're still unable to have any indoor programming because of spacing. If the weather is so that we can't have an outdoor activity, we'll have a take-and-make activity that you can stop into the library and pick up to take home. We hope that weather won't be an issue this summer. We'll do our program like last year. Stop into the library, pick up a packet for your child and sign the child's name to the card inside to register. We only need your child's name and age. Once your child is registered they will be eligible for weekly prizes and grand prizes that we will give out four times during the summer. Bring your child into the library and when they check out a book or books they can sign up for prizes. We're hoping to have some fun this summer! Reading Colors Your World!

The library has Chrome books available to check out and hotspots that can be checked out too.

Memorials have been given to the Hallock Library in memory of Dick and Carol Gatheridge.

CBP seizes $4.5M of pot at Pembina Port of Entry

PEMBINA, N.D. — U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Office of Field Operations officers at the Pembina Port of Entry targeted a commercial shipment that had arrived in Pembina on Friday, April 23. CBP officers inspected the shipment manifested as straw to discover 2,796 pounds of marijuana within the shipment.

"Customs and Border Protection has a multi-layer enforcement posture, with the thoroughness performed by the Primary officer being phenomenal, which led to the referral of the truck. Utilizing our available technology led to further examination of the shipment," said Pembina Area Port Director Jason Schmelz.

"This interdiction keeps narcotics from entering the United States and reinforces the important border security mission CBP officers have in keeping our country and communities safe. The teamwork involved in a seizure this large was outstanding."

Homeland Security Investigations and Pembina County Sheriff's Department were contacted and responded to assist.

CBP has the primary mission of preventing terrorists and terrorist weapons from entering the United States. CBP also works to prevent narcotics from entering the United States. For more information about the work of CBP, please visit www.cbp.gov.

HALLOCK CITY MAINTENANCE EMPLOYEES worked on completing the equipment installation at Gilbert Olson Park last week. Here, Caleb Pinnock mixes cement to finish up installing support poles while Joel Peterson and Utilities Superintendent Dan Larson work on the other side of the equipment. Once the equipment is completely installed, the crew will clean up the loose, ripped landscaping fabric, lay down new fabric and replace the pea rock. They hope to have this project complete by Memorial Day weekend. (Enterprise photo by Anna Jauhola)
