TCU Lonsdale feeds the hungry

TCU Lonsdale wrapped up its school-wide food drive last week, bringing in just under one ton of groceries (1,909 pounds). In addition, they raised more than $1,200 in cash donations, and they absolutely crushed it! On Wednesday, April 21, seven cars rolled up and delivered the goods. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts. A much enjoyed breath of kindness and hope. Pictured is Megan Warner, a fourth grade teacher from TCU presenting money to Mark Sibenaller from the Lonsdale Area Food Shelf.

Waterville resident offered Le Sueur County administrator position

Martin

An extensive search for a new Le Sueur County Administrator is coming to a close.

After final interviews with four candidates Monday, May 3, the Le Sueur County Board of Commissioners extended the job offer to Joseph Martin during the Tuesday, May 4 board meeting.

Martin, lives in rural Waterville with his wife, Staci (Bohlen), and their two children. He is the son-in-law of Curtis and Joyce Bohlen of rural Kilkenny.

Martin most recently served as State Executive Director for the USDA, Farm Service Agency in St. Paul where he served as a political appointee for a four-year term.

Prior to this position, he was the owner and president of a private consulting business serving various sectors in communications and management for approximately five years.

Martin also served as a Communications Manager for DuPont in Mankato for two years and an Assistant Commissioner for the Minnesota Department of Agriculture in St. Paul for five years.

who is currently serving as the Director of Human Resource Business Operations for the City of Minneapolis, Pat Oman, who most recently served six years as the Mille Lacs County Administrator, and Joe Stremcha, who is currently the City Administrator for the City of Springfield, where he has served for 2 1/2 years.

If Martin accepts the position, the terms of his employment and board approval will most likely occur during the commissioners' Tuesday, May 18 regular meeting.

The other three finalists included Joseph Hatch,
