

DAGUE BECOMES FIRST HORNET TO REACH 2,000 POINTS

Photo by Chad Koenen

As junior Grace Hammer looks on, Henning High School senior Ellie Dague takes a shot in the lane during last week's Park Region Conference game against Wadena-Deer Creek. Dague, who is already Henning's all-time leading scorer, needed just 12 points to become the first person in school history to score 2,000 career points. For more information, check out page 4.

Contributed photo

The Henning Fire Department currently has three sets of father and son members of the volunteer department. Among the fathers and sons on the fire department are Tim and Jon Eckhoff, Caden and Robert Johnson, and Travis and Jeff Arndt

HFD becomes a family affair

Three father-son members are part of the local Henning Fire Department

By Chad Koenen
Publisher

The Henning Fire Department has turned into a family affair—literally that is. Three sets of fathers and sons are now serving on the Henning Fire Department. Caden Johnson and Travis Arndt recently joined their dads, Robert Johnson and Jeff Arndt, as the newest members of the local volunteer department. "It's kind of an interesting thing that happened. We didn't realize it happened at the time," said Henning Fire Chief Mike Helle.

In addition to Arndt and Johnson, the father-son team of Tim and Jon Eckhoff are

HFD REMAINS IN THE FAMILY
continued on 2

Henning narrows superintendent search to six

By Chad Koenen
Publisher

The Henning School Board has narrowed its search for a new school superintendent to six finalists.

During its regularly scheduled meeting last Monday night the school board narrowed a list of 14 applicants to fill the position of full-time superintendent.

Barry Olson, who is the current interim superintendent, will leave his position with Henning School at the

SEARCH NARROWS TO SIX PEOPLE
continued on 3

Photo by Chad Koenen

Henning fire trucks lined up outside of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church on Monday morning for the funeral of former chief Dick Brogard.

Former fire chief, businessman passes away

Brogard served as fire chief from 1975-90

By Chad Koenen
Publisher

Longtime businessman Dick Brogard passed away on Feb. 7 at his daughter's home in Savage, Minn.

Brogard, who was the son of the late Emmett and Pauline Brogard, graduated from Henning High School with the class of 1952. After graduation he was employed by F.R. Stuart in Henning as an apprentice plumber. In

FORMER FIRE CHIEF PASSES AWAY
continued on 3