Local election results roll in

Voters cast ballots in local, state and national races Tuesday, Nov. 3. Results so far are unofficial.

Vote totals will be updated into next week because the county will continue counting absentee ballots sent by Election Day that arrive by Tuesday, Nov 10, in accordance with a consent decree extending the deadline for receiving ballots. However, in compliance with an order from a federal appeals court, the ballots received after Election Day will be set aside in case a future court order invalidates them.

Following are unofficial results from the Secretary of State's Office as of Wednesday, Nov. 4.

5th Congressional District

Rep. Ilhan Omar has retained her seat in the U.S. House by a wide margin. The DFL incumbent received 252,939 votes (64.34%) according to unofficial election results. Republican challenger Lacy Johnson had 101,470 votes (25.81%) and Legal Marijuana Now candidate Michael Moore took 37,295 votes (9.49%). There were 1,438 write-in votes.
