

TOKYO 2020

Noah Lyles
This is Lyles' first Olympics. He holds the best 200-meter time in 2021 (19.74).

Katie Ledecky
The swimmer will look to add to her five gold medals. She holds three world records.

Simone Biles
Biles is the most decorated and dominant American gymnast of all time.

The games return after being postponed by COVID-19

THE XXXII OLYMPIC SUMMER GAMES

July 23-Aug. 8 • Tokyo, Japan

- Opening ceremony: Fri., July 23, 8 a.m. CT
 - Closing ceremony: Sun, Aug. 8, 8 a.m. CT
- Fans are banned from nearly all Olympic venues.

How to watch: NBC, NBC Sports Network, USA, CNBC, Olympics Channel, Golf Channel and Telemundo. Stream on Peacock, NBCOlympics.com and NBCSports.com.

Tokyo is 14 hours ahead of U.S. Central time. Many events will be held in the early morning hours for U.S. viewers.

WHAT'S YOUR EVENT?

Scheduled dates for the Olympics

3x3 basketball July 23-28	Archery July 23-31	Artistic swimming Aug. 2-7	Badminton July 23-Aug. 2	Baseball July 27-Aug. 7	Basketball July 24-Aug. 8	Beach volleyball July 23-Aug. 6	Boxing July 23-Aug. 8
Canoe/kayak July 25-Aug. 6	Climbing Aug. 3-6	Cycling July 23-Aug. 7	Diving July 25-Aug. 7	Equestrian July 24-Aug. 7	Fencing July 23-Aug. 1	Field hockey July 23-Aug. 6	Golf July 28-Aug. 6	Gymnastics July 23-Aug. 3	Handball July 23-Aug. 8	Judo July 23-31
Karate Aug. 4-7	Pentathlon Aug. 5-7	Rhythmic gymnastics	Rowing July 23-29	Rugby July 25-31	Sailing July 24-Aug. 4	Shooting July 23-Aug. 2	Skateboarding July 24-Aug. 4	Soccer July 24-Aug. 7	Softball July 23-27	Surfing July 24-31
Swimming July 24-Aug. 4	Table tennis July 23-Aug. 6	Taekwondo July 23-27	Tennis July 23-31	Track & field July 30-Aug. 7	Trampoline July 30-31	Triathlon July 25-27	Volleyball July 23-Aug. 8	Water polo July 24-Aug. 8	Weightlifting July 23-Aug. 4	Wrestling July 31-Aug. 7

ATHLETES TO WATCH

SHOT PUT

PAYTON OTTERDAHL

The Rosemount, Minn., native won a pair of indoor national titles as a senior at North Dakota State. He placed third in the trials.

SKATEBOARD

NYJAH HUSTON

Huston is a four-time world champion in street style - which includes grinding rails and executing maneuvers off stairs. He has won more prize money than any skateboarder in history.

SOCCER

MEGAN RAPINOE

Rapinoe won a gold medal with the women's soccer team in the 2012 London Olympics. She is internationally known for her high level of play and activism.

Sources: www.olympics.com, USA TODAY Sports

Troy Becker / Forum News Service

SOCCER

From Page B1

enhanced her status as the competition's breakout player with another hat-trick in a 4-4 draw with China in Group F.

China had a goal machine of their own in Wang Shuang, who scored four times including a late penalty to earn her side a deserved point at Rifu's Miyagi Stadium.

Wang became only the third player to score four goals in a match at the Games and the second in the tournament after Dutchwoman Vivianne Miedema.

Earlier, forward Janine Beckie scored in each half as Canada beat Chile 2-1 at the Sapporo Dome.

Left: United States forward Christen Press (right) celebrates her goal against New Zealand with midfielder Julie Ertz during the second half in group G play during the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Summer Games at Saitama Stadium in Saitama, Japan, on Saturday, July 24.

Jack Gruber / USA TODAY Network