

FOURTH FUN ALL AROUND

Near Ninth Street, a young parade watcher edged out for a treat. Mike Creger / Pine Knot News

Fireworks light up the sky over the St. Louis River and the Highway 33 bridge Sunday night. The fireworks began about 15 minutes early as stormy weather threatened from the west. Dave Harwig / Pine Knot News

The car show at the NorthEastern Saloon & Grille, the two photos above, went from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sunday, drawing its largest crowds after the 11 a.m. parade. Mike Creger / Pine Knot News

This 1923 fire truck was one of the first to protect the area after the 1918 fires. The Shriners enjoyed its nearly 100-year-old mechanics during the parade. Mike Creger / Pine Knot News

Ryan and Crimsen Hanson of Crimsen Tied brought the kids along for Sunday's performance at the NorthEastern Hotel & Saloon on Dunlap Island in Cloquet. The fireworks interrupted the final song, a rendition of "Sweet Caroline" that had the crowd singing along. Jana Peterson / Pine Knot News
