Oak Grove man to climb Everest to raise money for Firefighters for Healing

By Jonathan Young Managing Editor

Minneapolis Fire Capt. Scott Coffey was on scene at a 2010 house fire when a backdraft explosion blew fellow firefighter Jake LaFerriere across a room, leaving him with severe burns and ending his career.

Coffey never forgot the trauma of that day, but he also found inspiration in the way LaFerriere moved forward after his recovery and launched Firefighters for Healing, a nonprofit that supports burn victims and first responders.

advice, Ramsey council votes not to enforce mask mandate By Emilee Wentland Staff Writer

The Ramsey City Council approved a measure March 9 to prohibit the use of city resources to enforce Gov. Tim Walz's mask mandate and "any other orders that infringe on people's constitutionally protected rights, especially as it related to COVID-19."

The resolution, brought by Council Members Chelsee Howell and Ryan Heineman, was approved in a 4-3 vote. Mayor Mark Kuzma and Council Members Chris Riley and Matt Woestehoff dissented.

The resolution says Walz's mask mandate has "broadly undermined the basic human rights of our neighbors, our families and ourselves.'

Coon Rapids Famous Dave's will be first 'Quick Que'

By Emilee Wentland Staff Writer

Famous Dave's in Coon Rapids is returning with a new look, and residents will see the results this September.

The location will be the first to offer a line-service, cafeteria-style dining experience, dubbed "Quick Que."

"It's the same great food, only quicker," Famous Dave's CEO Jeff Crivello said.

Customers are expected to wait less than three minutes for their meals.

City Attorney Langel said it's not immediately clear what liability the city could face as a result of the resolution.
