

To whom it may concern:

Having a published ad is a vital part of any retail business. This is exactly what Billie Jo and the Clara City Herald does for Almich's Market. Billie is always spot on capturing the theme of the ad. The creativity always shows each week. These ads are vital for customer retention and gaining new customers. The ads have a nice home town feel to them. They aren't cookie cutter corporate ads. This is exactly why Billie Jo and the Clara City Herald are producing Almich's Market ads.

Thank you, Brett Almich (owner of Almich's Market in Granite Falls, Clara City & Slayton)
