ABOUT US

The Pine Knot News is the most comprehensive news chronicler in Carlton County and the only one that is locally owned and operated. Begun in 2018, our name is an homage to the area's first newspaper, The Pine Knot, which first printed in Cloquet in 1884 using paper from a local mill.

HISTORY MYSTERY

The latest photo from the Carlton County Historical Society is of some very smiley students at the Scanlon grade school in the early 1960s. Do you recognize anyone? The society would love to put some names to its photo collection. Send your information to news@PineKnotNews.com with "history" in the subject line.

CORRECTIONS

Ski jumping photos on Page 1 of last week's Pine Knot News were taken by Matthew Moses. They were wrongly attributed in the paper version. We appreciate Matt's photographic talents and willingness to tromp around in the snow. It wasn't his first time at Pine Valley and it shows. Find more photos from the Cloquet Invitational Nordic combined meet on our website and find more of Matt's work at www.matthewmosesphotography.com.

Claire Klein works for the Carlton County Attorney's Office as the child protection (CHIPS) attorney. Klein was incorrectly identified as a county social worker in last week's story, "After protests, courts enter fray." We apologize for the error.
