

TUESDAY
APRIL 19, 2022

CITIZEN'S ADVOCATE

THOUSANDS OF EGGS FOR THE TAKING

One of the largest Easter Egg Hunts in the region was held on Saturday in Ottertail. The annual Ottertail Easter Egg Hunt featured approximately 5,500 Easter eggs that were hidden in the community park and surrounding area. The egg hunt was sponsored by the Ottertail City Chamber of Commerce and also included 150 prize baskets. For more pictures and information about the egg hunt, check out page 12.

Photo by Chad Koenen

Ukraine war hits home for local residents

By Chad Koenen
Publisher

The ongoing war in Ukraine is hitting home for approximately two dozen people, who went to the country as part of mission trips.

Over the course of approximately 15 years, around 25 people from what is now Water's Edge Church

UKRAINE WAR HITS HOME
continued on 4

Photo by Chad Koenen
Ted Strand began his new role as the Henning Public Utility Supervisor on April 4. He had previously served as the public works supervisor in Cross Lakes for 22 years before coming to Henning.

New utility supervisor takes over in Henning

Strand was supervisor at Cross Lakes for 22 years

By Chad Koenen
Publisher

Ted Strand may be new to the Henning Public Utility department, but he is anything but a new face in the community.

The new public utility supervisor joined the City of Henning staff on April 4 and has been busy learning all of the ins and outs of the expansive utility department.

STRAND IS NEW SUPERVISOR
continued on 2

Photo by Chad Koenen
Army veteran Brett Swaser is hoping to use food as a way to honor and visit veterans across the Deer Creek area. He is preparing and cooking a meal for one to two veterans a month in the area thanks to a partnership with the Deer Creek American Legion.

Photo by Chad Koenen

BREAKING BREAD WITH VETERANS IN DEER CREEK AREA

Local veteran unveils new Meals with Veterans program

By Chad Koenen
Publisher

Food has a unique way of bringing people together and opening doors that may otherwise be shut. A Deer Creek man is hoping to utilize his passion for cooking, as a way to open the doors to veterans throughout the region.

Brett Swaser has recently unveiled his new program

"Cooking With a Veteran" in which he prepares and cooks a meal for a veteran or spouse of a veteran. He takes care of everything right down to purchas-

COOKING WITH VETERANS
continued on 3

HENNINGADVOCATE.COM

VOLUME 131, ISSUE 16

WHAT'S INSIDE

OPINION 6 CHURCH 7

SPORTS 9 CLASSIFIEDS 11

Obituaries: Lenzie Hennagir, 87, Henning • Florence Demo, 91, Henning • Pamela Isaacson, 65, Wadena • Elaine Paavola, 86, Perham

7 93573 04252 1

$1.00

Single issue Copy