

Education

Cambridge-Isanti celebrates Class of 2022

The tradition of the Cambridge-Isanti class president giving his classmates the signal to throw their mortar boards into the air was delivered by 2022 class president Jackson Nelson.

Cambridge-Isanti Class of 2022 created one last memory as they threw their caps in the air, celebrating the end of their high school careers.

Photos by John Wagner

Levi Peterson gives Cambridge-Isanti principal Steve Gibbs a hug on the way to picking up his diploma.

Tara Keller takes a selfie along with Cambridge-Isanti principal Steve Gibbs just before she receives her diploma.

Jillian Edblad, Jenna Kirkeide and Amelia Kroschel sing the National Anthem in the early moments of the graduation program.

After graduation,, a number of family and friends celebrate and capture memories that will last a lifetime.

Jaxon Jones takes a selfie as he and his newly minted Cambridge-Isanti graduates begin to leave the gym.

Michael Saniti mugs for the crowd before he steps forward to receive his diploma.

The valedictorians of the Cambridge-Isanti Class of 2022 are, from left, Gloria Hughes, Chase Imker, Hayden Kassa, Nicole Knudson, Ashleigh Reilly, GeAnn Merkouris and Abigail Bettendorf.