WESTBROOK — The headline says it all for Westbrook's Fun Days — There literally was something for everyone with events to suit young and old alike. From Pizza and Praise to Sand Volleyball and so much in between. It was probably as close to normal as anything has been since the pandemic known as Covid 19. While a lot of the pandemic is in the rear view mirror, it seems to be far from over — but with Covid vaccination offering a lot more protection we can all hope that at least more lives can be saved.

The big event for many was the crowning of Miss Westbrook at the scholarship program. Once again the Miss Westbrook Scholarship Program was a huge success with six young ladies vying for scholarships and the opportunity to represent Westbrook throughout the next year.

Those competing for the title of Miss Westbrook were — Isabella Rentschler, Caitlin Mershon, Jessica Harder, Olivia Anderson, Shelby Foster, and Hallie Landuyt. Little Miss Westbrook candidates were Kinley Duerksen, Melani Glander, Ayla Jorgenson, Leah Madson, Brooke Steen, and Arianna Warner.

The Miss Westbrook candidates each performed in their individual talents along with a physical fitness routine and their presence and composure.

The Little Miss Westbrook was named after their dance routine. Melani Glander's name was drawn for the title and crowned by last year's Little Miss Westbrook Claire Dibble.

Before the crowning of the 2022 Miss Westbrook, last years reigning Miss Westbrook Kelsey DeSmith crowned Shelby Foster as Miss Congeniality and the First Runner Up Jessica Harder before putting the crown on the 2022 Miss Westbrook Olivia Anderson.

Over $6,000 in scholarships was awarded. Each
