

TRI-COUNTY NEWS

Your Hometown News

Serving Eden Valley, Kimball, Watkins and surrounding communities.

Volume 75, Issue 19
Thursday,
June 2, 2022

Inside this week:

- Graduation open houses, page 2.
- Sandy Holthaus recipe column, "Maple," page 2.
- How to avoid tick bites, page 3.
- Kimball Golf Club news, page 5.
- When the caregiver is a crook, page 5.
- EV-W and KAHS baseball, page 6.
- EV-W/K track & field win Sub-Section West Championships, page 7.
- What's happening with Minnesota's economy? p. 7.
- Memorial Day programs 2022, page 8.

KAHS Commencement took place Thursday, May 26, with 65 receiving diplomas. Class President Jamison Tubridy (upper left) gave the welcome. Leah Schiefelbein spoke on "Embracing Failures." And Megan Kiphuth spoke on "Opportunities Await." The choir sang "Count On Me," and the Band played "Into the Raging River." Diplomas were issued, and grads were given a carnation and greeted by the school board. Random grad photos (at left) include Ace Meyer, Ty Gustafson, and Madelyn Hunt.

Staff photos by George Matua

- OBITUARIES: Robert "Bob" Adolph, 86, of Kimball; Cathleen "Caye" (Wilberg) Aho, 79, formerly of Dassel; Mary (Kosel) Baker, 93, formerly of Kimball; and Carol (Thorson) Lundeen, 84, of South Haven; page 9.

- Amateur baseball: Hawks win 2 games; Express and Clippers win 1 lose 1; page 10.

- Minn. poultry event ban extended to July 1, page 12.
- Fatal car crash in Wright County, page 13.
- June brings temps near 70, page 16.

"In Brief" is on page 16.

Index

| | |
|--------------------------|-------|
| Opinion | 2 |
| Schools & Sports | 6-7 |
| Obituaries | 9 |
| Legals & Gov't | 12-13 |
| Business Directories .. | 12-13 |
| Crime Blotters | 13 |
| Community Calendar | 14 |
| Classifieds | 14-15 |
| Weather | 16 |

Newsstand Price: $1

EV-W Commencement took place Thursday, May 26, with 72 receiving their diplomas. Rylan Schueller led the Pledge of Allegiance (upper left), Salutatorian Lindsey Wirz welcomed the Class of 2022, Valedictorian Gretta Lemke gave the Commencement address, and Class President Alex Haag gave the farewell. A group (below) sang "Lean On Me" and the band played "Back Home" as a recessional. At left, Ian Nistler and Ethan Hesse skip into graduation; twin grads Shelby and Jackson Geislinger; and random post-diploma pics of Baili Schoen, Tyler Anderson, Adam Lindenfelser, and Erica Rausch.

Staff photos by DeeAnn Schueller.

