The Barn Theatre presents "Clue, the Musical" Thursday through April 10. The popular game "Clue" is now a musical that brings the world's best-known suspects to life and invites the audience to help solve the mystery.

At each performance, the audience has the option to play along with the game of Clue unfolding on stage.

By using the audience playing form provided and paying attention to clues, you can deduce Whodunnit, In what Room, and With what Weapon. You'll have to put on your thinking cap to win the game. Audience participation is optional.

Cast members are Austin Willhite, Reagan Toedter, Allen Clark, Matt Onnen, Rachel Trettin, Ramee Switajewski, Bailey Stahl and Bailey Fields.

The play is directed by Mary Haugen, with Madison Anderson-Wilson as the vocal director.

The set director is Aane Twedt, and Cole Woltjer is the stage manager.

Lights are by Patrick Gilmore and Domonique McPhail.

The pit director is Brendon Canavan, Lynn Ullrich is the pianist and Anita Flowe is on percussion.

The play is presented without an intermission.

Showtimes are 7:30 p.m. March 31, April 1-2 and 7-9, and 2 p.m. on April 3 and 10. Tickets are $20 for adults and $10 for students, online at www.thebarntheatre.com or at the box office 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday through Friday, 320-235-9500.
