

Community

City of Braham, filled on Pie Day

Many could take a look at the behind-the-scenes action that took place in order to serve all those that attended the event and needed their fill of pie.

Hundreds of pies filled the City of Braham for their annual Pie Day. Many different flavors were available to try such as strawberry, blueberry rhubarb, peach, cherry, apple, and many more.

A great numbers of vendors, selling a range of products, were attracting many attendees at this years Pie Day.

Photos by Nikki Hallman

Braham is the homemade pie capital of Minnesota. The town hosts its annual Pie Day on the first Friday in August, this year held Aug. 5. There was much to do beside from enjoying a piece of pie. Entertainment played throughout the day, many food trucks were available, and vendors of all kinds were also available at the annual event.

If you attended Braham's Annual Pie Day, there's a good chance you saw a plethora of classic cars and trucks. Ron Hallin's bright yellow 1965 Ford F100, just happened to be parked below Braham's Ford Dealership's sign for all to see.

You can't attend the annual pie day without grabbing a delicious slice with a side of ice cream. Hannah Christman (left) and Adam Muscovitz did just that.

Tim Lang (right) and Roger Azzone (left) smile for a photo before they leave Pie Day in a 1940 Ford Sedan.

A kids decoration space was an eye-catcher for many creative kids that joined in on the festivities.

Braham Ambassadors helped serve pie throughout the day, to the hundreds of people that attended the event.